CLASSIFIED SECTION 109
The international review journal for specialists

ESSENTIAL READING FOR ALL DOCTORS

The Education and Training section of Hospital Medicine is the most rapidly developing section of the journal.

The next few issues will include new ideas on:

- PRHO year
- GMC document on the SHO grade
- Pros and cons of a single training grade for specialist training
- A practical How-To-Do-It series for trainers
- Assessment
- RITAs
- Understanding the legal framework.

"The international clinical review journal for specialists that combines theory, practice and educational training.
